Sheriff cites fire danger in obsolete Hancock Jail

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

Although precautions have been taken to prevent more fires in the antique Hancock County Jail in Bay St. Louis, Sheriff Ronald A. Peterson feels a deadly fire could occur at any time in the facility.

The sheriff Tuesday said the only solution to remedy the dangerous situation would be to construct a new jail.

Some 27 inmates of the Harrison County Jail in Biloxi died and about 55 were injured in a Monday morning blaze.

Two Hancock prisoners were at the Biloxi facility because Peterson determined the overcrowded and aging local jail could not securely house the men regarded as dangerous. One died and the other was injured in the fire.

The Biloxi fire was similar to two fires which have occurred in recent years at the Hancock jail with the exception of deaths.

Peterson Tuesday stated, "I believe in all fires we have had here, if we didn't have quick action by personnel we would have also had a high number of deaths here."

In an Aug. 1980 fire Peterson and Trusty Harold Goins risked their own lives to release trapped prisoners in the smoke-filled jail.

The sheriff was referring to two fires which have occurred at the jail in which burning foam rubber mattresses created deadly cyanide gas, heat and smoke—injuring seven men.

AUG. 27, 1981

Hancock inmate Jack Berry, 18, of the Bayou LaCrosse area is burned over 22 percent of his body and hospitalized at West Jefferson Parish Hospital after igniting a mattress in his cell.

Two other prisoners are treated for smoke inhalation after the 7 p.m. blaze.

MORNING OF AUG. 28, 1980

Four prisoners are hospitalized for smoke inhalation after inmate Thomas Gillum of Kiln also ignites a mattress.

Gillum is pulled from the smoke-filled jail unconscious, but is revived by Bay St. Louis Fire Department personnel.

Peterson reports the Kiln resident is in jail for apparent mental instability.

OCT. 20, 1982

In a relatively minor incident, convicted rapist Fritz Garcia awaiting trial for another rape charge grabs a fire extinguisher and sprays the entire jail and prisoners with chemical foam while handcuffed to a pipe in the facility.

In all instances, all prisoners are moved from the jail and placed under armed guard in a small adjacent exercise yard until the facility is cleaned.

Peterson reported all jail mattresses are chemically treated with a fire retardant and this week new heavy-duty steel bed frames are being installed in the facility to improve safety.

"We can take every precaution, but things can still happen," the sheriff said.

Peterson reported the 45-year-old Hancock jail is overcrowded with 26

DANGER—Page 2A

Hancock prisoner dies, another hurt in Biloxi

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

One Hancock County man is dead and another was injured in an early Monday morning fire at the Harrison County Jail in Biloxi.

Jimmie Jordan, 22, of Shoreline Park, convicted of rape and attempted jail escape, is dead from apparent smoke inhalation, Sheriff Ronald A. Peterson Tuesday morning confirmed.

James Billiot, 20, alleged murderer of three relatives on Thanksgiving Day, was released from Gulfport Memorial Hospital about 10 a.m. Wednesday after being treated for smoke inhalation, a hospital spokesman said that day.

The fire was apparently started by Robert Eugene (Gene) Pates, 31, a former mental patient being held in a padded cell pending a lunacy hearing, based on news reports.

Pates apparently ignited foam padding in his cell which created toxic smoke which apparently killed 27 inmates and injured some 55. Some 95 prisoners were at the facility at the time of the fire.

Pates is charged with 27 counts of capital murder in the incident.

Peterson Wednesday said Billiot will be held at the Harrison jail in Gulfport until his trial, scheduled at the end of this month, is completed.

The sheriff said both Billiot and Jordan were transferred to the Biloxi facility because they were considered dangerous and adequate security could not be provided at the antiquated Hancock County Jail in Bay St. Louis.

James Tucker of the Bay St. Louis law firm of Cook, Tucker and Sharp was Jordan's court-appointed attorney.

Tucker Tuesday said Jordan was recently sentenced to 20 years in the State Penitentiary at Parchman after he was found guilty in Hancock Circuit Court of rape and five years for a recent jail break attempt.

Jordan also escaped from the Hancock jail in April, was later captured in Pennsylvania and transferred by court order to the Biloxi jail for security reasons, Tucker explained.

The attorney said Jordan was not sent to Parchman because he was appealing the two convictions.

Tucker said Jordan had not been arraigned or tried for the jail break, but had been indicted by a July Hancock Grand Jury.

An attorney had not been appointed to represent Jordan for the jail break charge even though he submitted written requests for one, Tucker stated.

Peterson reported Charles Tague, convicted in a Hancock Circuit Court term of burglary, was at the Biloxi facility until just a few days before the fire, but was transferred to the modern Jackson County Jail in Pascagoula apparently due to his behavior.

The sheriff noted Tague was also originally transferred to Biloxi because of poor security at the Hancock Jail.

"Anyone who's very, very dangerous would be a safety hazard to be housed in the Hancock jail," Peterson stated.

Tague was also not sent to Parchman because of an apparent appeal of the conviction.

Couple booked on marijuana charges

By ELLIS CUEVAS

A Garden Isle Subdivision couple were arrested Tuesday evening in connection with the alleged possession and intent to sell marijuana, according to Hancock County Sheriff Ronald Peterson.

Peterson said, "Mark E. Bankston, 23; and his wife Mary Bankston, 24, Rt. 4, Box 347, Bay St. Louis were arrested after a search of their residence revealed approximately two pounds of marijuana, approximately one-quarter ounce of hashish, another substance thought to be quaalude, and a counterfeit substance thought to be caffeine were found."

"Upon receiving a tip, we secured a search warrant from Justice Court Judge John Chevis," Peterson stated. The sheriff reported $4,877 was also confiscated in the raid and his office is currently investigating to see if the money is tied into illegal activities.

Both are charged with the alleged possession and intent to sell marijuana; possession of hashish; possession of a

Bay High gymnasium repairs near $50,000

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

Major Bay Senior High School Tiger Dome repair projects this fall total almost $50,000.

The Bay St. Louis Municipal Separate School District Board of Trustees Monday night approved a petition requesting $10,700 from the city to aid the school in projects which will completely rework flooring inside and repaint the metal exterior of the gymnasium.

J.D. McCullough, superintendent of education, reported U.S. Fidelity and Guaranty Insurance Co. which insures the building will pay $11,845 of a $17,445 project now underway repainting and refinishing the wooden Tiger Dome basketball court flooring.

McCullough said some $5,594 must be paid by the district.

He reported leaks in the gymnasium roof apparently caused the flooring to buckle in several areas.

In the last two years the board has authorized repairs to the floor which have apparently not solved the buckling problem.

Barnetts Flooring Co. of Gulfport is reworking the floor.

McCullough said the total project cost includes a $200 fee for District Architect Fred Wagner.

The board at a recent meeting authorized advertisements seeking bids to paint the exterior walls of the dome.

McCullough said the walls are beginning to rust and the repainting project is estimated at about $5,000.

The city's monetary assistance would pay the uninsured amount of the flooring project and the entire amount for the painting work.

The board also authorized a $7,692 payment in a $26,808 gymnasium reroofing project as requested by the superintendent.

He said the State Educational Finance Commission is paying the entire project cost which also includes a $1,600 fee to Wagner.

In other business at the 7:30 p.m. regular meeting at the superintendent's high school office, the board:

Tartavouille eyes Circuit Clerk's post

Gloria Carswell Tartavouille of Waveland, secretary of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department, has announced her candidacy for the office of circuit clerk.

She is the daughter of John Carswell and Gloria Necaise Carswell of Waveland and the granddaughter of the late Henry Necaise and Neomi Bourgeois of Waveland.

The candidate is married to Dennis Tartavouille who is the son of Mrs. Elsie Bourgeois Tartavouille of Waveland and the late Herbert Tartavouille.

Upon graduating from Bay Senior High School, she began summer employment with the sheriff's department.

After attending Pearl River Junior College, she began full time employment as secretary for former Sheriff Sylvan Ladner and continued in the position with Sheriff Ronald Peterson.

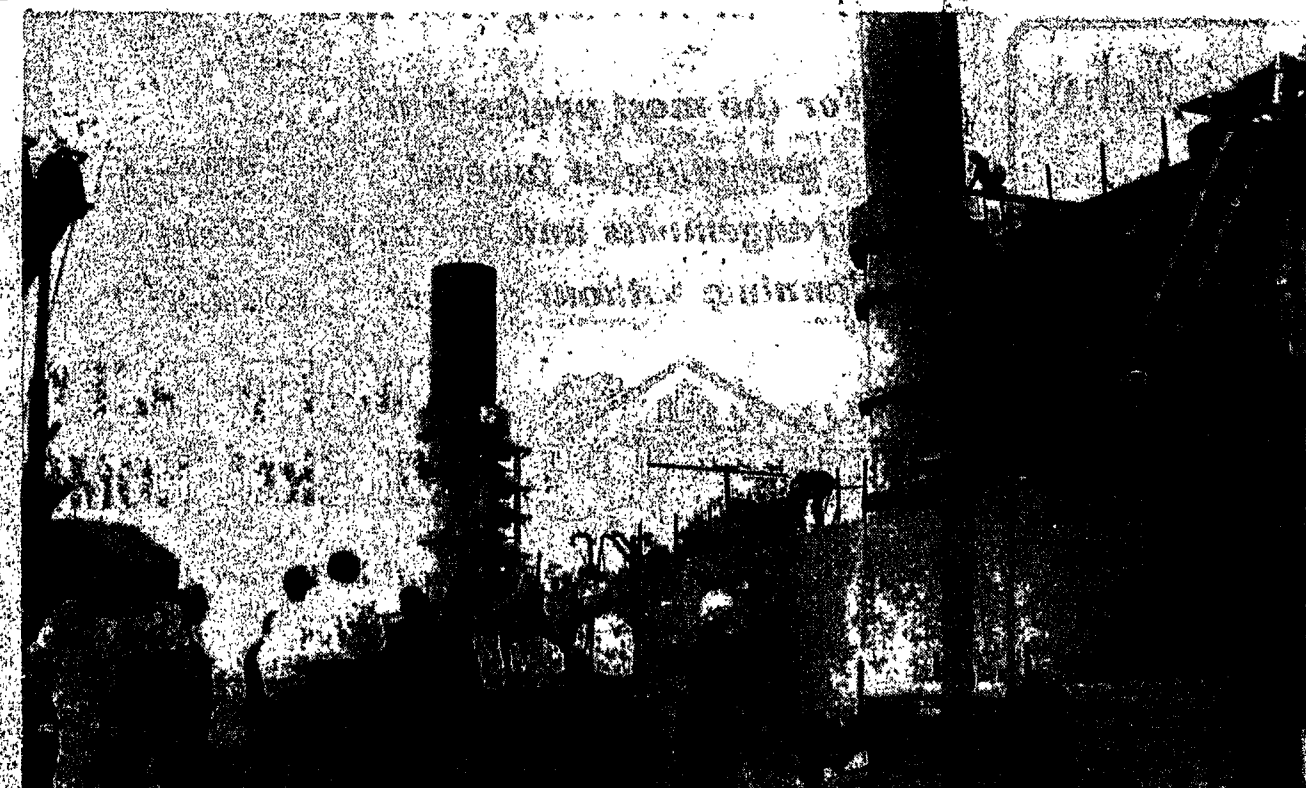

"In my present position, I have worked closely with the Circuit Clerk's Office and I am familiar with the daily routine of this department," Tartavouille said.

"If elected, one of the changes I will implement will be to open the office a half-day on Saturdays," she continued.

"I urge all citizens of Hancock County to utilize their right to vote on Dec. 7 and vote for a qualified candidate—your vote will be appreciated," Tartavouille stated.

US Navy Steel Band to highlight SCLC fest

Chancery Clerk Michael E. Necaise and the U.S. Navy Steel Band will highlight the second annual Thanksgiving Festival hosted by the Southern Christian Leadership Conference at Commagere Park Saturday and Sunday.

All festivities scheduled for Saturday will begin at noon after Father Francis Theriault, SVD of St. Augustine Seminary offers the invocation.

Necaise will be guest speaker. Activities in the park will feature gospel music, choir competition, and country-western music played by Vic Green and the Boys of Lakeshore.

On Sunday, the U.S. Navy Steel Band will be the featured attraction. This year McDonald's Hamburgers and Stroh's Beer are co-sponsoring the festival.

The local SCLC Chapter President, Calvin Smith is urging participation from throughout the county.

Smith also stated that the main objectives of the festival are to promote community solidarity in these austere times and to provide scholarships for some worthy students presently attending school along the Gulf Coast.

"Bring the family and treat them to the most exciting weekend on the Coast," he said.

controlled substance and also possession of a counterfeit substance, Peterson allowed.

Mark Bankston had an additional charge lodged against him in connection with the stealing of five shotguns by Bay St. Louis Police, Peterson said.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled before Judge Chevis. The two are out on $13,000 bond each with Mark Bankston posting an additional $1,500 bond in connection with the Bay St. Louis charges.

Hancock Investigator Alvin Ladner is in charge of the case. The arrests were made by Peterson, Ladner and Hancock Deputies Willie Lee and David Garcia.

In other activities Peterson said James Conley, 51, under indictment for armed robbery in Hancock County, has been returned to the Hancock County jail from Knoxville, Tenn.

Conley was indicted along with four others in connection with the armed robbery of Virginia Gilbeau, a Fire Tower Road resident in January.

He had been arrested shortly after he was indicted by a grand jury in Hancock County by the FBI and was in the Knox County jail.

He was unsuccessful in his attempt to prevent extradition to Mississippi.

The armed robbery involved jewelry valued in excess of $100,000 while Mrs. Gilbeau was entering her home.

Other defendants in the case are Bob Stewart, 36, of Athens, Ala.; Marilyn Page, 35, of Dothan, Ala.; Frank P. Malone, 38, of Gulfport; and Dale J. Bissett, 41, of Biloxi. A sixth person charged in the case, D.D. (Sam) Buchanan, died in a traffic accident a few days after his arrest.

Ladner also reports the recent arrest of Ronald P. Melborne, 33, in connection with $300 reported stolen from a Lakeshore residence.

"Melborne was arrested after an investigation of the incident and he is currently lodged in the Hancock County Jail and is charged with grand larceny. No bond has been set because of a parole violation," Ladner added.

prisoners living in a facility designed to house about 17.

He noted 26 is the lowest number of inmates housed at the facility in the last few years and in several instances as many as 45 prisoners have been jammed into the jail with some forced to sleep on the floor.

Peterson cited his recent decision not to jail misdemeanor offenders as an effort to reduce the crowded conditions.

He reported in some cases it may be necessary to hold a misdemeanor offender, but he does not like to take that action unless it's absolutely necessary.

The sheriff said the overcrowding causes frequent fights among prisoners.

These incidents not only endanger prisoners, but department personnel as well, Peterson noted.

He reported 12 violent felony offenders now have to be confined in one cell.

As a result of recent incidents in which prisoners have escaped by slamming the antique hinged cell doors into jailers and escaping, Peterson said he now requires two deputies to open a cell door.

A new jail with electronically-operated sliding cell doors with enough cells to place a maximum of two prisoners in each is the only solution to this problem, the sheriff reported.

Peterson said a holding facility for mentally unstable prisoners is needed along with separate facilities for female inmates.

Mentally unstable prisoners are now confined individually in a regular cell and women inmates must be placed in detention rooms in the sheriff's office, Peterson noted.

The sheriff said the present jail needs a second-floor fire escape.

"If a fire started on the first floor it would be impossible to get upstairs to the prisoners," he stated.

Peterson said he relies on recently-installed smoke alarms, trustees housed in the first-floor cells and jailers to detect fires.

He also reported there are extra sets of keys available in the event one jailer is overcome by smoke in releasing prisoners during a fire.

But the sheriff said even with all the precautions, a fire could still occur in the obsolete facility.

The inmates manage to smuggle in a wide array of items no matter what security measures are implemented, including frequent searches and shake downs, Peterson reported.

He said prisoners have a right to smoke cigarettes in jail which is a fire hazard.

The sheriff said he has not yet been able to remedy all deficiencies cited in an inspection last year by State Fire Marshall and Board of Health officials which include a need for individual cells, the fire escape and a larger exercise yard.

However, he has been able to make some recommended improvements which include smoke alarm installation, a dietitian and improved kitchen facilities.

But even if all the improvements were made, the jail still would not comply with U.S. Justice Department requirements which call for 50-square-feet of space for each prisoner, Peterson reported.

"Basically, the answer to our problems is a new jail," he stated.

Council passes moratorium on recreational vehicle parks

By KIRBY MACKEY

The Bay St. Louis City Council passed a moratorium recently on the use or construction of all recreational vehicle parks in the city.

The moratorium will be in effect until a proper ordinance concerning the parks can be adopted.

The council was recently informed of a recreational vehicle park being constructed on the corner of US-90 and Bouslog Street. Citizens in that area are concerned that no action is being taken by the developer to insure construction of areas for proper waste disposal.

They fear refuse will be left in the wake of travelers heading to the 1984 World's Fair in New Orleans.

The council contacted the State

Health Department to determine what guidelines exist for the establishment of trailer parks.

Louis Fernandez, county sanitarian with the Mississippi State Department of Health, wrote the developers (Mr. and Mrs. Stan Moore of Bay St. Louis) informing the couple of guidelines established for the construction of mobile home parks.

The Moores wrote Fernandez explaining they were not building a mobile home park and would only be accommodating overnight trailers.

"It is our intention to only invite overnight guests in self-contained units to park here and to provide water and electrical service for them. In addition we will provide security, restrooms with showers, picnic pavilion and a dumping station (a contract will be secured with a company from Gulfport for regular service to the dumping station)," the Moores wrote.

The council, after reading the correspondence stated they thought overnight travelers would stop only to "dump refuse."

The moratorium passed unanimously.

Also at the meeting, the council:

—Authorized the mayor to execute all contracts to begin paving work on Main Street and begin Phase II of a gas line project in the city's Small Cities Area.

—Approved hiring the law firm of Favre, Genin and Scaife at $50 an hour to present a second opinion on a wastewater contract which would bind Bay St. Louis to a county-wide wastewater authority. A ceiling on any payments to the law firm was set at $1,000.

—Agreed with the Planning and Zoning Commission and denied a special use permit to Maurice P. Mercadel for property on the southeast corner of Sycamore Street and Hancock Street. Mr. Mercadel was hoping to open a restaurant on the corner. However, some 27 citizens objected to a large restaurant being located in the neighborhood. Several appeared at the City Council meeting.

Chamber directors hear Exposition progress report

Hancock County Chamber of Commerce Director Clarice Gustin, along with chamber directors from Pascagoula, Ocean Springs and Biloxi, attended the Louisiana World Exposition, Inc. Board of Directors annual luncheon Nov. 5 at the Sheraton New Orleans Hotel.

Peter Spurney, general manager of the Louisiana World Exposition, Inc., brought the 400 persons attending up to date on the progress of the fair, whose theme is "The World of Rivers-Fresh Water as a Source of Life."

Spurney said he expects at least 12 million visitors to the fair, which will run May 12 - Nov. 11, 1984.

The average peak daily on-site attendance is projected at 50,000. More than 60 percent of those attending the Exposition will come from within a 150-mile radius of New Orleans.

Today there are over 20,000 hotel rooms and hotel projects planned or underway which will add approximately 6,000 new rooms in time for the Exposition, which most is within walking distance of the Expo site.

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce World's Fair Steering Committee will meet in December, and anyone who desires to work on the committee should notify the Chamber of Commerce office at 467-9048.

Three arrested in Waveland shoplifting

By ELLIS CUEVAS

Two adults and one juvenile have been arrested by Waveland Police in connection with three shoplifting incidents according to Investigator Sandra Henley.

Henley said, "Troy Steven Sancier, 19, of Bay St. Louis was arrested for allegedly shoplifting a pair of shoes from a Choclate Plaza Store on Monday. He was arrested by Waveland Patrolman John Wilkerson on Longfellow Drive."

Sancier is out on a $150 bond and is scheduled to appear before Waveland City Judge Lucien Gex in city court tonight, Henley stated.

"Sunday evening at around closing time at Kmart, two employees tried to stop a juvenile leaving the store after allegedly shoplifting a radio. He struck a female employee and fled the scene. An arrest was made in Bay St. Louis by Wilkerson with assistance by the Bay St. Louis Police Department within an hour," Henley reported.

The juvenile was turned over to the Hancock County Youth Court.

"In another shoplifting incident, Richard F. Diehl, 19, a student at Tulane forfeited a $100 bond in connection with the alleged shoplifting of two cans of beer on November 4 from Delchamps Food Store," Henley said. He was arrested by Waveland Patrolman Chuck James and failed to appear in court last Thursday.

FmHA loan totals for FY82 reported

The Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) provided loans totaling $242 million to over 14,000 Mississippi farmers in fiscal year 1982 which ended on Sept. 30, FmHA State Director James L. Perry reports.

FmHA is a credit agency of the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It provides loan assistance to farmers who need credit but who cannot get it from a private bank or other lending institution.

The loans are to be repaid in full, plus interest to the U.S. Government. FmHA has over 2,000 field offices throughout the country with 81 county offices in Mississippi.

Early, preliminary figures show that nationally the agency provided about 100,000 loans to farmers across the country. The total amount loaned through FmHA farmers programs was approximately $4.1 billion.

The preliminary totals show that Mississippi FmHA provided 1,679 farm operating loans for $46,923,460; 332 farm ownership loans for $17,689,230; 2,949 natural disaster emergency loans for $196,297,760; and 74 soil and water loans for $1,287,580. "Some farmers received more than one type of loan," Perry said.

BORDER LIFE

"Presente," a series focusing on issues pertaining to Latino societies, cultures, performing arts and public affairs, can be seen on the Mississippi ETV Network at 2:30 p.m., Sundays, beginning Nov. 14.

The series begins with "La Frontera," a film by Victoria Schultz about the people and challenges of the U.S.-Mexican border region. The film shows the strong interdependence that the people on both sides of the border share despite the economic and cultural dissimilarities.

The dynamics and human drama of the immigration issue are explored as well as the factors that make the 2,000-mile border the most active in the world.

Today we write a lot about things done by teenagers which are not considered being very nice.

A good deed done by four teenagers of the St. Ann's-St. John's Youth Organization, is the type of thing which is very seldom published.

These four young people took it upon themselves to paint the residence of a Lakeshore resident who is blind.

This was no easy chore, it took the foursome two days to complete. By the way, we were told some 30 teenagers were scheduled to help until the project started. The house had to be washed down using a compressor and water before painting could begin.

The four teenagers doing this good deed were Marty Sahuque, Dede Erskine, Jeannie Seay, and Steve Klein.

We are very proud of these four young persons, as we know their advisor Mrs. Linda Curet, and Father Lambert Stack, pastor, must be.

We thought you would like to hear of these good deeds.

Well, the high school football regular season is now history.

Intergalactic are in order for the Bay High Tigers who were in a three-way tie for the Deep South Conference title.

The Tigers, under the guidance of Head Coach Smuffy Smith, compiled their best record in recent years. They had some problems with injuries near the end of the season, and we are hoping more boys will be on the Tiger squad next season to give the depth needed to win all the way.

There were some upsets this past season, and we feel a big one was the final game for the Pass Christian Pirates when they took a home field victory over arch rival Long Beach in the fourth quarter.

When a team goes into the fourth quarter trailing by 21 points, there is little hope of even scoring, much less muster enough drive to score 20 points.

Many fans are wondering where Coach Bob Lumpkin was keeping the team who played the fourth quarter against Long Beach.

We know Pass Christian and St. Stanislaus had little success this season, but they should both be contenders in 1983, if all the young players return.

The Hancock Hawks too had a losing season in high school football, but we feel Head Coach Irvin Favre will have them raking in the conference next year.

High School football is still on tap in Hancock County this weekend with the Wendell Ladner Memorial Bowl Game to be played in the Hawk Stadium Saturday night.

Pearl River Central will tangle with West Lauderdale in the game which we are told has two evenly matched teams.

On the Junior High side, the Mullet Bowl will be played tonight Thursday, at Tiger Stadium in Bay St. Louis.

The undefeated Bay Junior High Tigers will host Poplarville in what should be a very good game.

We hope football fans will attend both the Mullet Bowl and also the Wendell Ladner Memorial Bowl games.

It was a very informative day for the 40 persons who attended the Industrial Tour co-sponsored by the Hancock County Chamber of Commerce and Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission.

The weather was beautiful, and every stop on the tour, the group was welcomed by outstretched arms.

Dick Thomas, chairman of the tour, and Wilson Webre, Hancock County Port and Harbor Commission executive director, should be commended for their efforts in bringing together a great tour.

Marlene Gustin, executive director of the chamber, and Melanie Mitchell also worked tirelessly getting everyone together for the tour.

Marlene was really enjoyed at Holly Bluff on the Jourdan and thanks goes to hosts Bob and Tim Johnson.

Those who missed the industrial tour this year may want to try and join the group next year.

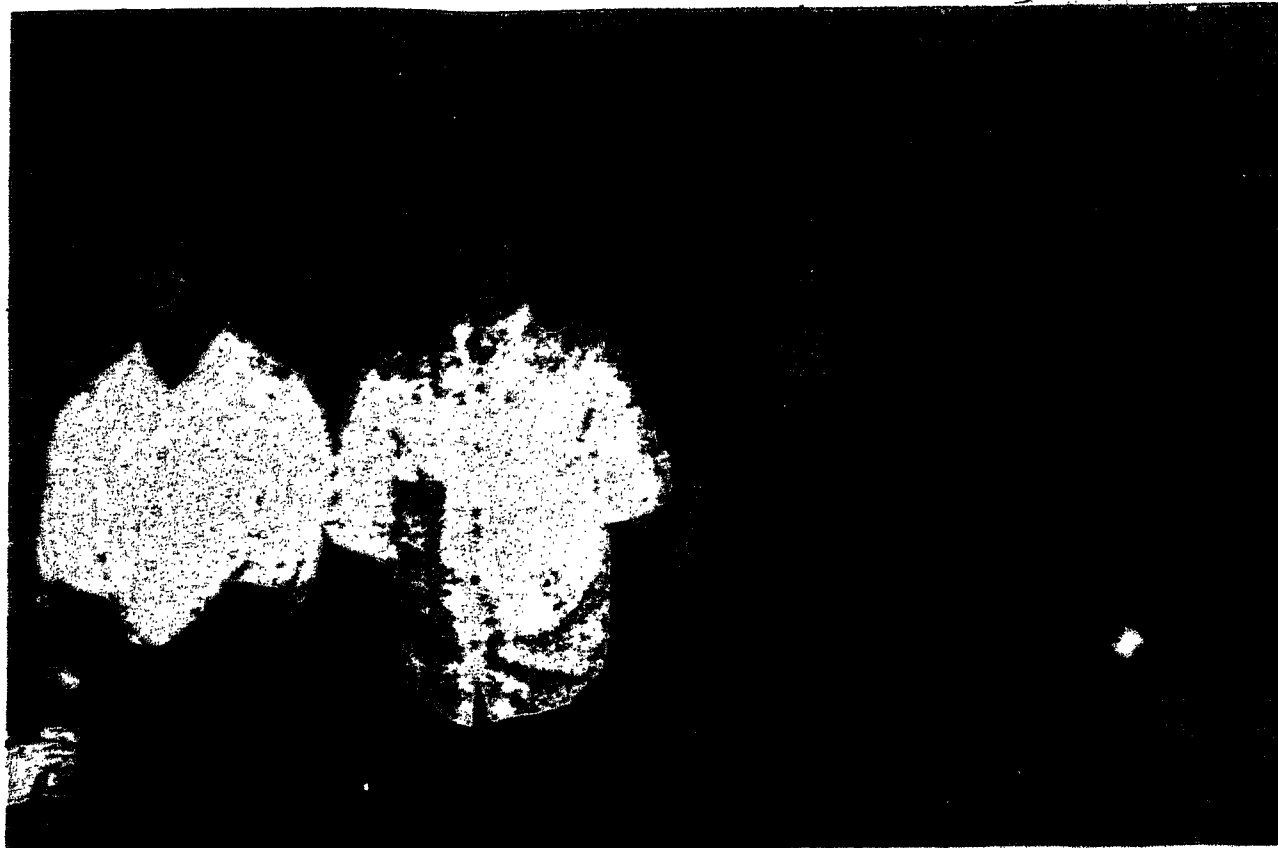

This is just a reminder of the Veterans Day festivities planned for the morning in Bay St. Louis.

The parade will begin at 10 a.m. at Bay Junior High and will travel on Beach Boulevard, to Booker, to Hancock, to Union to Second, and then to City Hall for the Veterans Day address.

Vietnam Veterans will receive special honors this year in Hancock County in the festivities sponsored by the Clement R. Bortemps American Legion Post No. 139.

All Legionnaires, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts are urged to participate in the parade. We hope the general public will view the parade and festivities at the Bay St. Louis City Hall.

at the parade!

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Why do gas bills vary so much from month to month, house to house?

Nov. 8, 1982

Dear Editor,

Could you kindly explain to the readers of your paper why the gas bills vary so much from one house to another?

Several neighbors in the Spanish Acres Subdivision have low gas bills—$12.50 to $20 this past month.

Several of these people have gas dryers also.

In my house the only thing that runs on gas is the hot water heater, and that is used for two or three baths at night and one sink of dishes.

The cost of gas on our bill last month was $37.85—gas alone for just the water heater.

The central heat pilot was turned off in April.

After receiving this bill, we have had two plumbers here make the mercury pressure test on all the lines, not one leak was found.

Then we called the head of the Utilities Department, and asked him to please come and check our meter and change it or fix it.

That was last Wednesday and today he still has not sent anyone to check the meter and let us know about it.

We can stand and watch the needle on our meter go around like a second hand on a watch and the meter next to ours is hardly moving.

I've been informed the cost of gas is up, but why on just one meter, and why such a jump from one month to the next for the very same thing, and what do we have to do to get this problem corrected?

Sincerely,
Edward Ellis

Concerned parent complains of unequal newspaper coverage of school activities

November 8, 1982

Editor
The Sea Coast Echo
Bay St. Louis

Dear Sir,

It seems there has been unfair coverage during the recent Halloween Carnivals at our area schools.

How can it be fair and equal to print 21 pictures of Waveland's, and eight of North Bay's, and only three of Gulfview's carnival?

All of the people who worked hard to organize the Gulfview Halloween Carnival certainly felt disappointed to look through last Thursday's paper and find only three pictures. It didn't do justice to all the children who participated in all the events and costume contests.

There were so many boys and girls who had created wonderful costumes ranging from clowns and fairy princess to monsters and black-leather clad hangers.

The local area missed seeing just what a successful event our carnival was for our school.

I sincerely hope in the future that fairness to all will be considered in covering all events in the area schools.

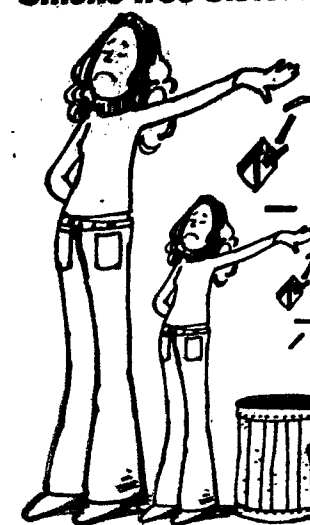

A concerned parent,

Veterans Day, 1982

By the President of the United States of America

A Proclamation

Veterans Day affords all Americans a special opportunity to honor the deeds of those who sacrificed so much to answer the call to arms during the life of this great country. On this day, our Nation is united in tribute to the valiant men and women who have unselfishly given of themselves to serve in our Armed Forces.

Words alone are insufficient to express our lasting gratitude and admiration to those whose patriotism and courage have ensured our peace and freedom despite threats of tyranny and aggression. Significant disruptions in their lives and other personal hardships have been the price that our Nation's veterans have paid so that the rest of us might enjoy the fruits of justice and liberty.

In order that we pay meaningful tribute to their efforts, Congress has provided (5 U.S.C. 6103(a)) that November 11 shall be set aside each year as a national holiday to honor America's veterans.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RONALD REAGAN, President of the United States of America, do hereby call on all Americans to join in observing Thursday, November 11, 1982, as Veterans Day. I urge both public ceremonies, as well as private thoughts and prayers, in recognition of the great contribution of our veterans to an America that today is an example to all nations of freedom, liberty, and democracy. On this day, let us give special consideration to those who have died in our Nation's wars and to those who have been disabled.

I call upon Federal, State and local Government officials to mark Veterans Day by displaying the flag of the United States, and I ask those Government officials to support fully and personally its observance by appropriate ceremonies throughout the country.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand this 16th day of Sept., in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighty-two, and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred and seventh.

Ronald Reagan

Federal agencies working for veterans employment

"Veterans Day affords all Americans a special opportunity to honor the deeds of those who sacrificed so much to answer the call to arms during the life of this great country," said President Ronald Reagan in calling on Americans to join in observing today as Veterans Day.

Even though Veterans Day is observed just one day a year, providing assistance to veterans who are seeking employment is an on-going effort. Each day in Mississippi State Employment Service (Job Service) offices across the state, local Veterans Employment Representatives provide job counseling, testing, and placement services to these veterans.

Employers who hire economically disadvantaged Vietnam-era veterans can qualify to receive a tax credit through the Targeted Jobs Tax Credit program, which has been extended through December 1984 by the Tax Equity and Responsibility Act of 1982. The amount of tax credit allowed in any taxable year is equal to 50 percent of qualified first-year wages or 25 percent of qualified second-year wages for each eligible veteran hired.

The U.S. Department of Labor is moving quickly to implement recent legislation to improve services to veterans. In addition to providing a 7.4 percent cost-of-living increase in the compensation for veterans with service-connected disabilities and widows, the Veterans' Compensation,

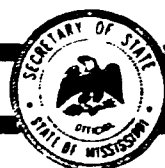

Education and Employment Amendments of 1982 require the Secretary of Labor to administer, through the Assistant Secretary for Veterans' Employment, all national employment and training programs for disabled and Vietnam-era veterans.

The measure also requires federal contractors to report annually to the Secretary of Labor on their affirmative action efforts to hire Vietnam-era veterans.

It gives the Assistant Secretary for Veterans' Employment greater flexibility in administering the national Disabled Veterans' Outreach Program (DVOP), which employs some 2,000 disabled veterans nationwide in helping other veterans obtain jobs and establishes a Committee on Veterans' Employment to advise the Secretary of Labor.

Another new law, the Job Training Partnership Act, identifies veterans as one of three groups for which special nationally-administered employment and training programs are to be provided. This law provides for $13.414 million to be set aside each year to meet the employment and training needs of Vietnam-era veterans, recently discharged veterans, and veterans with service-connected disabilities.

Veterans who need help in seeking employment and employers who wish to hire veterans should contact their local office of the Mississippi State Employment Service for assistance.

CORRUPTION: a wound which must be cleaned and healed

By DAVID JONES
Corruption is an ugly word. It connotes a subtle, oozing evil. An intangible nastiness that doesn't manifest itself except when lanced and exposed.

Corporate, law enforcement, political, even clergy factions have all experienced corruption at one level or another.

Whether it be some petty act of discrimination at work that tends to redden the neck and send the stomach launching into fits of wild indignation or an executive embezzling millions of dollars from enthusiastic, upright investors, corruption can be a blemish on human existence or a boil the size of Mount St. Helens.

On the surface, events in recent years seem to suggest widespread corruption. Richard Nixon's administration was felled by corruption that seethed villains such as G. Gordon Liddy.

ABSCAM, faintly resembling the word "abcess," exposed the soft underbelly of Congress. Even now, John De Loreau's saga unfolds with charges of drug deals and monetary incongruities.

To a more drastic degree, Jim Jones ordered over 900 of his ardent followers to obey one final command, resulting in the carnage of misplaced belief.

These are just a few concrete examples amidst a host of atrocities, acts of terrorism and unattended leadership positions that tend to fester with corruption. Corruption is relative to power and position. The point is: leaders are, quite simply, the public personified. The supposed 'best' qualities in all of us and, in some cases, the 'worst' in all of us, that, when exposed, cause us to cringe and wonder in bewilderment and become introspective.

In a certain sense, we fall when our leaders fall.

Using the aforementioned public examples we can build a totem pole of corruption in terms of degrees.

Surely, in this time of a repressed economy coupled with the vibrant visions of conspicuous consumption, one can't be judged too harshly for accepting $50,000 for "political favors."

Neither can President Nixon's attempted coverup of Watergate be considered a moral debasement of character.

Even John De Loreau, a man of enormous charisma and power who needed "fast" money to keep his wealth from being examined and liquified, can be granted some semblance of sympathy.

In time, these examples of physical, statute corruption can be forgiven as victimless crimes. One can't so easily dismiss corruption of the soul.

Thus, the Rev. Jim Jones assumes the topmost position on our corrupt totem pole, symbolizing the quintessential heathen of modern times.

A man who used God and love and the soul to intimidate and mesmerize people into a trance; a trance permeated with trust and a feeling of well-being.

His many followers placed their faith in his guidance, his leadership. He was, to them, the link — the vital link between themselves and whatever spiritual inspiration they envisioned.

He then bade them to drink Koolaid laced with cyanide.

We must forever strive to expose corruption and then mend the wound. We must castigate the instrument, individual or group that instigates the corruption.

Remaining an ugly word, corruption continues to occur. In various forms, to different degrees, corruption is an undying fixture in the human condition. Always shocking when it is exposed, corruption remains picture-perfect about its well-crafted exterior.

Waveland monthly award based mainly on attitude

Recipients of the Student of the Month Clover Award at Waveland Elementary School include Pat Carver, Myra McNear, Edwinda Henley, Merry Saucier, Mallaca Strom, Michael Thompson, Kianna Jackson, Andrew Esteve, Stephanie Roberts, Penelope Lepine, Jimmy Baldree, Stacey Netto, Larry Ladner, and Marie Summers. The students merited this award from their teachers on the basis of positive attitude shown through the month of September towards teachers, school work, fellow students, and school property.

Each of the honorees received a clover pendant-necklace to wear as a symbol of the qualities they have exemplified, were presented with free passes to the Bay

Senior High Homecoming football game, and will be given additional privileges by their teacher during the month of October.

This special award will be presented to deserving students at the beginning of each month.

Probe continues in District 4 embezzlement

By WAYNE DUCOMB JR.

The Hancock County Sheriff's Department is continuing its investigation after the arrest of a County District Four employee for embezzlement.

Peterson Monday said Ernest Gryton, 30, of Kiln and a county road worker for the last seven years was arrested Friday and charged with embezzling some $430 in automotive parts.

The Kiln man was released that day after paying $1,500 bond.

Gryton is scheduled for a Wednesday hearing before Justice Court Judge John Chevris at 8 p.m. at the Hancock Courthouse in Bay St. Louis.

The sheriff said Gryton apparently charged the items to the county's account during the last two months at Bay-Waveland Auto Parts in Bay St. Louis and utilized them for his own use.

A sheriff's department list of the stolen parts includes two air filters, four plastic wheel covers, two cans of spray paint, two universal joints, one radio antenna, two side-mounted rear-view mirrors, an ignition switch, four heavy-duty shock absorbers, a custom license plate holder, one mud flap, one wheel adapter plate, one buffer plate, two ball joints, two-feet of chrome tubing, two fog lights, two muffler tail pipe pads, one bag of accessory bolts, luggage carrier parts and two front disk pads.

Sam Perniciaro, District Four supervisor, Monday said he began noticing several unauthorized items appearing on bills from the auto store during the last two months and contacted the sheriff's department about the irregularities.

Peterson reported the investigation is continuing to determine if any other unauthorized purchases were made.

Bay man returns to furniture making

By BRENT MACEY

After more than 20 years away from a trade learned in his youth, 67-year-old Emory Pendergraft of Bay St. Louis is making furniture again at his shop on Main Street.

A mahogany china cabinet, a pine secretary, a mahogany curio and two gun cabinets, testify to some of Pendergraft's most recent work.

The creations, polished and stoic, stand in quiet contrast to the rest of the workshop which harbors an assortment of woodworking machinery, furniture in need of repair, upholstering material, ceramic sculptures, and a display case of odds and ends including rings and jewelry which Pendergraft also makes.

Pendergraft said most people who come to the shop think his business only repairs and upholsters furniture.

For 20 years, after moving the business from New Orleans to Bay St. Louis, that was all Pendergraft did at the shop.

But now times have changed, and Pendergraft noted his daughter, Mrs. Linda Reed, has taken over the upholstery part of the business, which gives him the time to make furniture or jewelry.

Several of his wooden creations, including a mahogany roll-top desk, a poplar deacon bench and a magnolia hutch have already been sold.

The roll top desk was sold before it was completed and Pendergraft has more orders for the deacon bench.

He noted he designs his own furniture.

"I don't try to make my furniture perfect," he said, and pointed to a few knicks on the side of a cabinet which he said some furniture makers would have taken out.

"It makes the furniture look older and more like antiques. Some people prefer that," he said.

While Pendergraft is the master furniture craftsman at the shop, he noted his grandson has also taken an interest in furniture making.

The hand carved claw legs on the china cabinet are some of his grandson's work. A chess board table and a backgammon board are other samples.

Pendergraft noted his furniture making business is one of perhaps a dozen along the entire Coast.

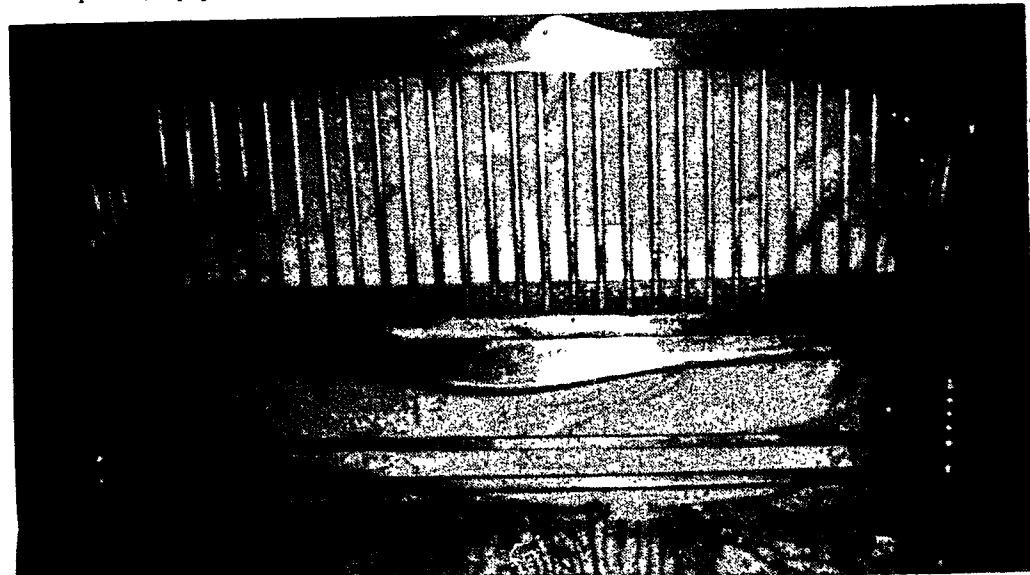

Although automation and mass manufacturing has replaced most of the craftsmanship involved in the furniture trade, Pendergraft claims anyone who becomes a furniture maker can still make a good living.

"That is if they're not afraid of a dirty four letter word: work," he added.

Boiled peanuts, a Southern favorite, will soon be available in the frozen food sections of Mississippi grocery stores, said Tyson Gair, host of the weekly television series "Farmweek," which will feature a story about these peanuts at 7:30 p.m., Monday, Nov. 15, on Mississippi ETV.

The peanuts are grown by the Southwest Farmers Association, a group of 269 farmers, most of them with small landholdings, in 13 southwest Mississippi counties, said Gair. Previously, the farmers had sold their peanuts on their own farms, but when more peanuts were grown than could be sold, they turned to the extension service at Alcorn State University.

The extension service there helped advise the farmers about growing the peanuts and is developing markets for the boiled, frozen green peanuts, which should begin appearing in Mississippi grocery stores about the middle of November, said Gair. He added that the frozen peanuts will be in white food containers with clear plastic tops. These containers can be heated in microwave or conventional ovens, he said.

"Farmweek" is co-produced by the Mississippi Center for Educational Television and the Mississippi Cooperative Extension Service.

Headstart benefit fish fry to finance Christmas toys

Parents of the Bay-Waveland Headstart Center are sponsoring a benefit fish plate dinner Friday to purchase Christmas toys for children enrolled in the center, according to Sullivan Bell, parent involvement aide. Some 250 pounds of fish was donated by a local fisherman to help the cause, noted Bell.

The dinner will be served from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. "We have many commitments already from various work sites, but there's room for plenty of more. We will be doing catering services, or you may come to the St. Rose de Lima Cafeteria on Necalse Avenue," said Bell.

The dinners are $2.25. Menu consists of potato or tossed salad, English peas, dinner rolls, cake, and fish.

"Many workers usually bring their lunch with them but this would be a good treat at a low price, and we are hoping in the afternoon and evening local families will come out to patronize us in an effort to support the cause," Bell continued.

"The facilities are designed so you can eat right there while its good and hot," noted Bell. "We will deliver up until 8 p.m."

School superintendent lauds efforts of many in successful season

Bay St. Louis Superintendent of Schools J. D. McCullough has issued a statement in connection with the Bay Senior High School's successful football season.

"We can't afford to let this year's football season go by without a word of praise and thanks to all those involved in making it a success for all our city schools.

A lot of people worked hard to make the games run as smoothly as they did. The concession stand workers, ticket takers, and sellers, maintenance workers, statisticians, the press, the chain crew, the faithful fans, athletic director and the like worked long hours toward the success of the games. We appreciate their services and hope you do also.

The young men we see on the football field couldn't be there if all the other things were not taken care of first. The games and concession sales are an important part of the school's athletic budget.

"We also want to recognize the band and cheerleaders at the different schools. Without them, the games just wouldn't be the same. They all work hard to boost the moral of the players, and they share in the winning of the games.

"We also must give thanks to all our coaches and players in elementary, junior high and senior high school that worked many long hours to give us a winning season. This we deeply appreciate.

"We appreciate our sports announcer, John Ginn who has been calling our games over the period of years; the faithful service of Dr. J.D. Rutherford, our team's doctor; Robert Delcuze, our team's photographer; and the ministers from Bay St. Louis and Waveland for their faithful service.

"As a final note, we must recognize all our law enforcement officers from this area who helped with the games, especially Chief Williams and his assistants. They did as good a job as we have seen in providing traffic control for all home games.

"This makes going to the football games more enjoyable.

"We just want to say thanks to all that are involved in making elementary, junior high and high school football the experience that it is. You are doing a fine job. Thanks."

Band Aide co-chairmen salute football season

"Now that the football season is over we would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank the Tiger Pride Band, the Bay Tigers football team and the Bay High cheerleaders for giving us such an enjoyable season.

"Each of these children, along with band director Glen Page, coach Snuffy Smith, assistant coaches Gary Griffin, Gale McRaney, and Barbara Powell who is in charge of the cheerleaders, have put in long and countless hours of hard work to achieve success. "They are well deserving of recognition and praise, not only for their accomplishments, but also for being wonderful young adults of our community of whom we can be proud."

Submitted by Tiger Pride Band-Aides Lucille Carvin and Bobbie Manieri, co-chairmen.

ENERGY SOURCE

Lena Horne is Jim Hartz's guest on "Over Easy" at 3:30 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 14, on the Mississippi ETV Network.

Lena Horne's career has surmounted prejudice, and she has survived personal losses: the deaths of several of her friends in the civil rights movement and, within an eight-month period, the deaths of her husband, son and father.

SPECIAL GUEST—Lena Horne is Jim Hartz's guest on "Over Easy" at 3:30 p.m., Sunday, Nov. 14, on the Mississippi ETV Network. Ms. Horne describes herself as "a late bloomer," and at 65, she says she enjoys life to the fullest despite many hardships in the past.

Department. All Bay firefighters participated in the recent course which covered 14 subject areas included in the skill and written tests necessary for certification. (Staff photo by Wayne Ducomb Jr.)

Fire Academy in Jackson; and Chief Andrew Lizana and Firefighter Arthur Farve, both of the Bay department. Hicks said firefighters must take the test every five years to renew certification. The exam contains physical tests, basic skills and written sections covering 14 subjects firefighters must know, he added. (Staff photo by Wayne Ducomb Jr.)

High school drama festival scheduled at Southern

At the 11th Annual South Mississippi High School Drama Festival, Nov. 19-20 at the University of Southern Mississippi two high schools will be selected to participate in the state festival Jan. 28, 1983 in Starkville.

One school will be chosen to represent the state in the Southeast Festival in Savannah, Ga. in March.

Students attending the festival will get to see performances of "The Elephant Man" being presented by the USM Theatre Department and free tickets to the Louisiana Tech game Nov. 20 will be available for students wishing to stay for the game.

Twelve schools will be able to present plays and must be registered by Nov. 10. There is no limit to the number of schools which can come as observers.

For additional information contact Conferences and Workshops at 266-4189.

Book Review

DEPRESSION PHOTOS

The decade of the Great Depression, the 1930s, was photographically documented by Farm Security Administration (FSA) workers who were assigned to record the depressed agricultural regions of America.

Mississippi was one such region included in the project, and Patti Carr Black, director of the State Historical Museum, has gathered many of the Mississippi photos in a book, "Documentary Portrait of Mississippi: The Thirties."

Black edited the book of 125 photographs after sifting through hundreds of photos in the Library of Congress, where the entire FSA collection is now housed. Black said that through the book, she wants to make some of the best of the FSA photos available to the public.

About the photographers, Black said, "They were a remarkable group, several of them becoming world-famous in their field."

Those represented in the book are Walker Evans, Dorothea Lange, Russell Lee, Arthur Rothstein, Ben Shahn and Marian Post Wolcott. Rothstein was the first photographer to be hired by the FSA and the first to come to Mississippi.

The others followed, traveling to different areas of the state and recording with their cameras.

The book, published by the University Press of Mississippi, and sponsored by the Department of Archives and History, is being released in conjunction with an exhibit at the State Historical Museum, which contains 25 of the 125 photos in the book.

After its showing at the museum, the exhibit will become part of the museum's traveling exhibit program for circulation around the state.

"Documentary Portrait of Mississippi: The Thirties" is priced at $15 and is available at the Old Capitol Sales Shop, Jackson, as well as other bookstores around the state.

Hancock Girl Scouts now selling calendars

The Bay-Waveland Girl Scout Neighborhood is now selling a Girl Scout calendar through Nov. 19.

The calendar is produced by the Gulf Pines Girl Scout Council and all photos are of scouts in the council.

Scouts from the Bay-Waveland area appear in the calendar.

The calendars sell for $1.50 each. Of this amount, each troop receives a share of the profits for its treasury.

The Bay-Waveland Neighborhood will receive a small share to support its activities and the remaining profits will go to the Gulf Pines Girl Scout Council to support its activities.

The calendars are available in two sizes—a wall and a pocket calendar.

Mrs. C.C. McDonald Sr. of Bay St. Louis appears on the front of the pocket calendar.

McDonald has given 30 years of unflinching devotion to Girl Scouting and has earned the respect of all those involved in the Girl Scout Program.

To order calendars, troop leaders to contact include:

Dianne Ritter at 533-7881, Connie Burnham at 467-8301, Gayle Egan at 533-7956, Susan Dalon at 467-0184, Pattie Gene Schlosser at 467-2640, Michelle Bezou at 467-3927, Rose Acker at 533-7152, Dawn York at 255-1373 and Alice Holmes at 467-3710.

Girl Scout troops are also selling the calendars at shopping centers and bazaars.

PRC Chorus participation up

Pearl River College's chorus has 34 members.

According to Dr. Larry Newell, chairman of the PRC Music Department, that's an increase of 13 over last year's group.

"We are very proud of our singers this year," said Dr. Newell. "I think we have the PRC chorus headed in the right direction."

New outfits were recently purchased for the entire group. During performances the girls wear pink cow-neck gowns and the boys wear grey tuxedos with black pants. "These professional looking outfits add to the image of the singers on stage," Dr. Newell said.

The PRC Chorus has presented four performances so far this fall and many more are planned. Newell has a Christmas program lined up for next month with the Junior College Choral Festival. PRC Choral Clinic and visits to district high schools set for next semester.

The Pearl River Choral

Clinic is a one-day workshop for high school choruses and directors from the PRC supporting district. Dr. Thomas Smith, director of choral activities at Auburn University will be featured. Smith's specialty is the show choir.

Brief

In celebration of All Saints Day, each class in the Bay St. Louis Catholic School District selected a saint to honor.

Several members of each class were selected to tell the story of that saint. The entire school responded by reciting prayers in unison.

The programs were conducted at the cafeteria on the Our Lady of the Gulf Campus and at the St. Rose de Lima campus.

Tiger cagers travel to PRC tonight

By BRENT MACEY
The Bay High School varsity basketball team will kick off the 1982-83 season this Thursday at an away game at Pearl River Central.

The season opener promises to pose an element of unpredictability for the Tigers who are starting off this season with almost an entirely new ball team from last year. Head Coach Jerry Spell noted all the Tiger starters this year were part of an undefeated junior varsity ball club ended last year's season with 14-0 record. Although the team was an excellent junior varsity group, Spell is uncertain how his young athletes will fare in varsity competition. "It's all going to depend on how fast they can adjust. At this point it would just be a wild guess," he said.

The team this year is composed of 13 players, 11 of which are juniors with one sophomore and one returning senior.

Spell said the team's attitude is "fantastic" and added, "They're the best group of athletes I've ever worked with."

"They're all unselfish, they like to pass the ball, and they have a good team concept. They're not jealous between players and they all want to win."

Spell noted he may start Thursday's game with juniors Kenneth Cline, T.J. Farve, Ronnie Lyons, Barry Frederick and Delfred Farve.

However he said the Tigers have such good depth this year that "Any of 10 players could start."

Following Thursday's game against Pearl River Central, the Tigers will travel to East Central on Friday.

The East Central game is scheduled to follow Girls' Varsity game which is scheduled to begin at 5:15 p.m.

West Lauderdale, Pearl River Central to vie in Ladner Bowl

By EDGAR PEREZ
The Hancock North Central High School Athletic Boosters Club has scheduled Pearl River Central High School and West Lauderdale High of Collinsville near Meridian to meet in the club's eighth annual Wendall Ladner Bowl Saturday night at Hawk Stadium.

Kickoff is slated for 7 p.m. in the post season football event named for the late Wendall Ladner, collegiate and professional basketball star as well as an all-time great HNC cager.

Booster Club President Dan Foy of Kiln said tickets are on sale at HNC for $3 advanced sale for adults and students. Tickets at the gate will be $4, he added.

Hawk coach Irwin Favre said Ladner played for University of Southern Mississippi before joining the professional ranks.

Ladner was playing for the New York Jets at the time of his death as a result of injuries sustained in an airplane crash.

In addition to the annual football bowl game, HNC's gymnasium is named for the former star and his uniform has been retired, according to Favre.

The PRC Blue Devil appearance in this year's Ladner Bowl will be the team's third post-season entry in as many years.

Blue Devil coach David Oaks said Wednesday his 13 seniors have participated in three winning seasons.

The coach noted the school had experienced eight losing seasons prior to 1980.

Oaks' charges won the 1980 Oil Bowl in Citronelle, Ala., 6-4 and took the 1981 District 8A playoffs, 8-3 against Poplarville.

PRC this year posted a 6-1 Deep South Conference record, topped by a 36-12 win over Hancock last week.

The Blue Devils gave up the conference championship Saturday on the turn of a coin after ending the season in a three-way tie with Bay High and Stone county.

PRC also holds a 5-1 District 8A record for 1982.

The Devils amassed some 2,170 yards rushing in the ten games and 692 yards passing for an offensive total of 2,862 yards.

They earned 143 first downs and completed 51 of 128 pass attempts with 9 throws intercepted.

Defensively, the Devils captured at least 18 errant opponent passes, Oaks figures.

West Lauderdale will bring a 7-2-1 record into the contest, also finishing second in its Sam Dale Conference behind Waynesboro.

Rock roundballers to meet Pass Friday

By BRENT MACEY
The majority of St. Stanislaus High School's varsity basketball team will be experiencing their first varsity game this Friday when the Rock-A-Chaws take on the Pass Christian Pirates in Pass Christian.

Although the St. Stanislaus team is lacking in both depth and experience, Head Coach Steve North is optimistic about his group of athletes.

"They are a real good group of kids and they are very pleasant to work with. So far they seem to be improving every week," he said.

The St. Stanislaus team is comprised of seven ball players this year with senior Steve Dravis, who transferred from the District Championship Stone County team this year, representing the only player with varsity experience on the Rock-A-Chaw squad.

Other members of St.

North is expecting the Pirates to offer the Rocks some tough competition. The varsity game will follow the junior varsity game scheduled to begin at 5:30 p.m. North noted the Rocks will take on Hancock North Central next Tuesday at St. Stanislaus.

Bay Area Soccer Club tells winners, schedules

The Bay Area Soccer Club's opening weekend of the 1982-83 season produced some exciting soccer at all levels of competition.

Starting with the U-8 Division, Specialty Metal edged J. Duncan's team 1-0 on a penalty shot, while D. Wiggins' and D. Berry's teams played to a 1-1 tie, as did Hancock Bank and C. Colson's team.

In the U-10 Division Little Italy, led by Sandy Parker's hat trick (three goals), defeated Hancock General Hospital 6-0, while McDonald's Restaurant edged Stark's Restaurant 3-2 behind Manning Montagnet's two goals. Lolacano's shut out McDonald's Restaurant 3-0 in the other Division game.

Mary Carter Paints in the U-12 Division opened the day with a convincing 6-0 win over R. Kidd's team, and then Hale Homes shut out Farm Bureau 3-0. The final game in this Division was an exciting 2-1 cliffhanger, with F. Legros' team coming from behind in the second half to defeat Dr. Murphree, D.D.S.

In the U-14/16 Division Bay Waveland Tire put up a valiant effort against the visiting SMSC team, but were shut out 5-0. Meanwhile Gulf Coast Waste, behind three goals by the Foreman brothers, defeated D. Rhodes' team 6-1.

The BASC U-16 Boys played the visiting SMSC team in a close game which saw the lead change hands three times. Sam Seymour drew first blood for BASC within the first two minutes of the game, but SMSC rallied behind Darrin Sloan's two goals to lead 3-1 at halftime.

However, BASC came back in the second half to win 4-3 on Shane Foreman's goal with just over three minutes remaining in the game.

The BASC Girls, U-12 and U-16, hosted two select teams from Slidell. The girls played hard in their first game, but the experience and skill of the Slidell teams were too great to overcome as both teams were defeated soundly.

The adults also hosted a select U-19 team from Slidell and were the victims of their younger opponents, 6-0. There was some good soccer played, and the youth who stayed to watch picked up some valuable pointers which they can put to good use in their future games.

The schedule for Saturday includes:

U-8 Division
10 a.m., Coca Cola v. (C. Colson)
11:30 a.m., Hancock Bank v. Specialty Metal
1 p.m., (J. Duncan) v. (D. Berry)
Bye — (D. Wiggins)

U-10 Division
10 a.m., Stark's Restaurant v. American Legion
11:30 a.m., Lolacano's v. Hancock General Hospital
1 p.m., Little Italy v. McDonald's Restaurant
Bye — McDonald's Realty

U-12 Division
10 a.m., Hale Homes v. Dr. Murphree, D.D.S.
11:30 a.m., Mary Carter Paints v. Farm Bureau, Kiln
1 p.m., (R. Kidd) v. (P. LeGros)

U-14/16 Division
10 a.m., Picayune v. Homes of the South (U-16)
1 p.m., (D. Rhodes) v. Bay Waveland Tire (U-14)
Gulf Coast Waste plays at Picayune at 1:30

Girls Division
Both the U-12 and U-16 Girls play at SMSC in Gulfport at 12. All referees, trainers and hopefuls are requested to meet at the Lutheran Church of the Pines at 7:30 this evening to go over questions regarding the laws of the game as well as procedures for reporting and recording games for BASC. The meeting will be conducted by Head Referee Tom Lombard.

The next Board meeting of BASC will be held on Thursday, Nov. 18 at 7:30, also at the Lutheran Church of the Pines.

Wildcats close with 36-13 win over Holmes

Hoping to salvage a winning season and with thoughts of returning a small favor to Holmes Junior College, a fired-up Pearl River Junior College team rolled to a season-ending 36-13 win over the Bulldogs in Goodman opening stanza.

Holmes who handed Pearl River a 31-6 thrashing in last year's state championship game, came back to tie the game with 1:50 remaining in the same period on a 3-yard run by Rod Jones. Mike Harlow's extra point produced a tie and marked the last time the Bulldogs would get close to the visitors from Pearl River.

Following a fumble which caused the 'Cats to start a drive from their own 6-yard line, PRJC's quarterback Chuck Bounds engineered a time consuming 17-play, 94-yard scoring march. James Jenkins culminated the drive with an 18-yard TD reception from Bounds. Following an off-side penalty on the extra point attempt, the Wildcats elected to try for the two-point conversion and halfback Edward Holt bolted across the goal line to increase the lead to 15-7.

That was all the scoring in the first half of play.

In the third quarter, however PRJC added another score on a 3-yard run by Donald Cooper, capping a 48-yard drive in only three plays. Smith again booted the extra point.

Four minutes later, following a DeNela-McLemore interception, PRJC's L.C.

Holmes put the icing on the cake with a 45-yard run and Smith drilled his third point after kick to give the 'Cats a commanding 29-7 edge.

Holmes' final score came with 10:37 remaining in the game on a 2-yard plunge by halfback Derwin Ellison.

PRJC's final touchdown came with 1:01 remaining as backup quarterback Doug Norris rifled a 5-yard scoring toss to Andrew Hickman. Smith added his fourth successful extra point to wrap up the scoring and the season for Pearl River Junior College.

Mullet Bowl action slated tonight in Bay

Two undefeated football teams, Bay Junior High School and Poplarville Junior High School, will face each other tonight at Tiger Stadium when the Eight Annual Mullet Bowl gets underway following queen crowning ceremonies 7 p.m.

Tiger Head Coach Cleveland Williams expects to face a running game from the Hornets.

"They've got some real quick backs and a real big line from what I've heard," he said.

Although Williams thinks his team might be outsize, he feels both teams are well balanced and the contest should be a good one.

The Tigers have the ability to both run and pass the ball, Williams noted.

"It will depend on how it goes. If they cut out our running game then we'll go to the air."

That tactic has worked well for the Tigers who managed a 7-0-1 this season.

Williams also is relying heavily on the Tiger 'crunch' defense which has allowed only 38 points all season.

LEADING RUSHER—Bay Junior High School's Willie Lewis scampers around the right side of the Tiger line on his way to chalking up more than a 1,000 yards rushing this year. The Tiger fullback is expected to see action once again tonight when the undefeated junior high Tigers face Poplarville Junior High in the Eighth Annual Mullet Bowl at 7:30 p.m. in Tiger Stadium. Gulfview ends season with win streak intact

The fifth and sixth grade Gulfview Bulldogs ended their season undefeated again this year with a 6-0 record.

The team has now managed to win 31 consecutive games, tying the school record for consecutive number of wins.

Head Coach Fred Bilbo noted the Bulldogs have been led this season by running backs Guy Graham and Tim Cox.

Graham has scored 13 touchdowns and Cox has 10 scores this season.

The coach cited blocking by Keith Sellier, Renee Chaisson, Scott Wainwright and Joe Vittur as major reasons for a successful Bulldog running game.

The Bulldog defense has also been tough this year, allowing only one touchdown score on the first unit all year.

Standouts for the defense include: Guy Graham, Marty Smith, Keith Marento and Mark Wagner, Bilbo noted.

from... Tom Mann

WHAT DOES "fine tuning" a lure mean? This is a question often asked at seminars I attend, and I can understand how it would puzzle a casual fisherman. So, let's unravel the puzzle.

Fine tuning means adjusting a lure so it will run on a true centerline, especially when operated at high speeds. You do it by using a pair of pliers and bending the line-tie the way you want the lure to run. In short, if it drifts a little left then you bend the line-tie a little right until it runs on dead center.

Why should you need to do this to a quality product like a Mann lure? Well, we can make almost perfect runners but so long as lures are assembled by hand there will be a few misbehavers in any line of wiggling lures.

But, fishermen ask, if lures work okay at a normal rate of retrieve why should they be fine tuned to work at a high speeds? Now pay attention to this answer because it could catch you a passel of fish.

Because there are days when a super-fast lure, either reeled or trolled, will trigger strikes that normal retrievers won't tempt. So, try it. I think you'll find fish like it!

On days when fish are finicky (oh boy!) try abnormal things—like very slow retrievers or very fast ones, or very noisy or very quiet ones. If you can't catch 'em, confuse 'em!

Saturday marks opening of deer season with guns

The opening of the deer season with guns—perhaps the premiere event of the fall hunting period—gets underway Saturday, Nov. 13.

Wildlife officials in Jackson estimate that some 173,000 licensed hunters will participate in this and other white-tailed deer hunts across Mississippi each year.

During this first seven-day hunting period which ends Nov. 19, deer hunters will find the season open in all 82 counties. However, hunters will not be permitted to use dogs.

According to the Department of Wildlife Conservation, hunters last year harvested over 200,000 deer across the Magnolia State. Almost half of all the deer hunters during this period were successful in bagging a deer, officials say.

The bag limit on deer is one adult buck per day. A legal adult buck is one with visible antlers of hardened, boney material having broken naturally through the skin.

Wildlife officials are very optimistic about the upcoming season. Most sections of the state have received adequate amounts of rainfall during the year. Annual crops of acorns and other nuts and berries seem plentiful enough in most sections for deer to feed on.

Conservation enforcement officers will be out in force during this first hunting period. Officers will be checking hunters for valid state hunting licenses, in addition to hunter orange. In Mississippi, all deer hunters must wear in full view a hunter orange hat, cap, or vest during all firearms seasons on deer.

All persons except those exempt under state law are required to purchase an annual hunting license and have it on their person while hunting. Exempt residents include those under 16 or over 65 years old; those adjudged totally disabled by the Social Security Administration; or those adjudged 100 percent service connected disabled by the Veteran's Administration.

In addition, any person operating a deer camp during a deer season must obtain a camp permit from the Department of Wildlife Conservation before beginning operation.

SNIPESHOOTING
And even though Saturday may be a big day with state deer hunters as their first gun season without dogs gets underway, but there will also be other shooting going on.

For on that day, common snipe season begins. You heard right: snipe season. A migratory species common to many parts of Mississippi during the winter, the common snipe with its long bill and twisting, darting flight, is found by hunters mostly in open grassland areas with pools of shallow water in depressions.

Not to be confused with the woodcock, which also has a long bill, the snipe is much slimmer and trimmer, and its flight more erratic.

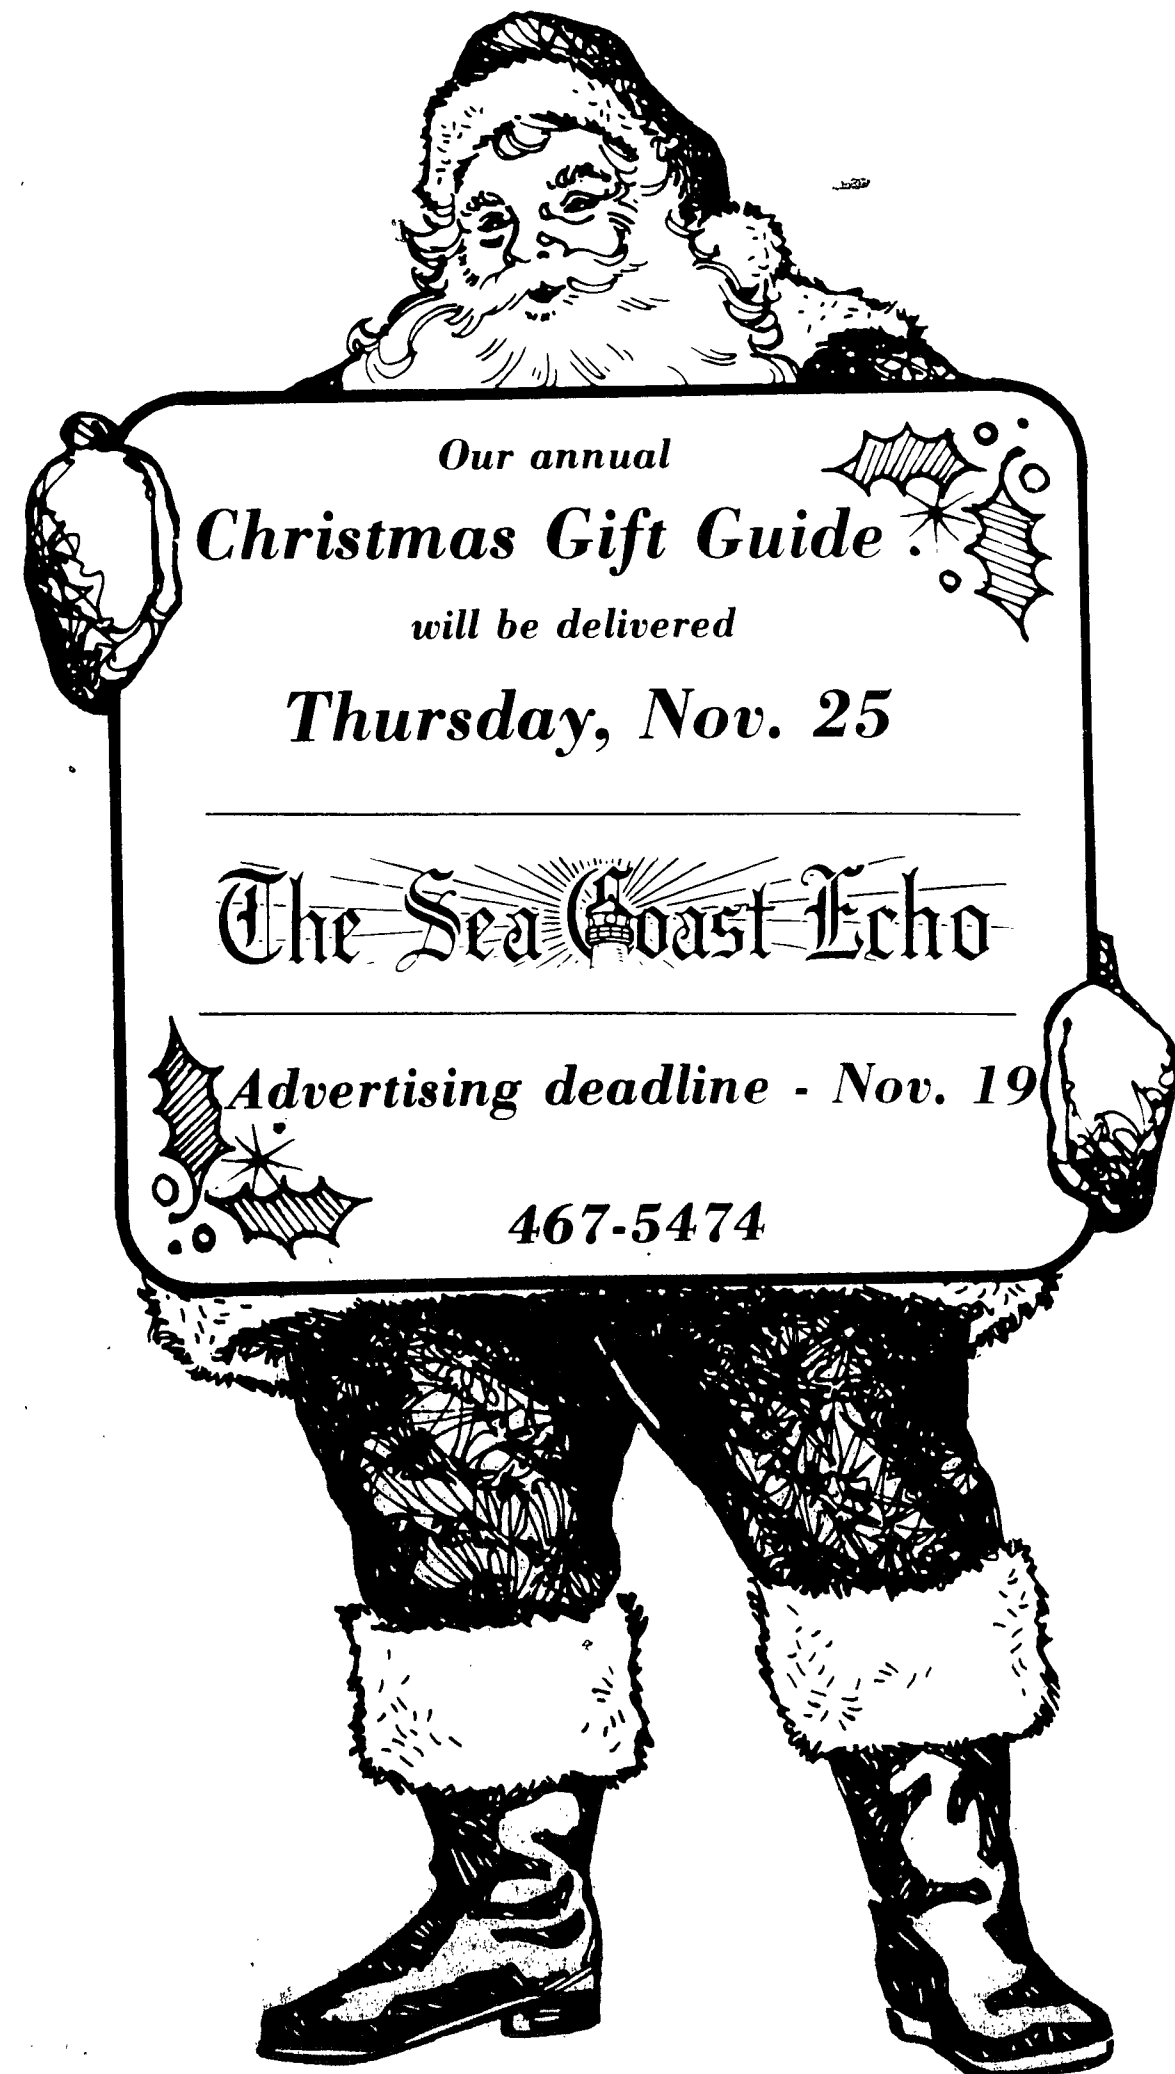

Some hunters also shoot snipe while hunting woodcock (a season which opens Christmas Day) in open wet areas interspersed with woody, cutover thickets. In the Delta during wet years, it is not uncommon to find flocks containing 50 to 100 birds.

The snipe season lasts through Feb. 27. The daily bag limit is eight and the possession limit is 16.

Since snipe are migratory birds, hunters must have their shotguns plugged and incapable of holding more than three shells. They must also have a valid hunting license before going afield.

Blue Angels to salute veterans in Pensacola Naval Air Station show

Plan your tomorrow...

HEALTH CAREERS DAY NOVEMBER 13

Dreaming of becoming a doctor one day? Perhaps a nurse, or psychologist? High school juniors and seniors who are interested in planning a career in the health fields are invited to attend Loyola University's Health Careers Day Saturday, Nov. 13, from 9:30 a.m. to 2 p.m. on campus.

Students will be able to meet with representatives from the departments of chemistry, dental hygiene, medical technology, music therapy, nursing completion, psychology, social work, sociology, and the programs in pre-dentistry, pre-medicine and pre-veterinary.

Students will check in at 9:30 a.m. in the Audubon Room of the Danna Center. A general session will be from 10-11 a.m. Students may choose two departmental sessions to attend, from 11:15 a.m. to 12:15 p.m., and 12:30-1:30 p.m. Lunch will be served at 1:30 p.m., and an optional campus tour will follow at 2:15 p.m.

In the chemistry department, students will be shown a short movie on the field of chemistry. They will tour the facilities and the laboratories. Dental Hygiene plans a demonstration of correct dental hygiene procedures. Students then will tour the clinic facilities.

In the Medical Technology, students will see a brief videotape and will discuss careers in medical technology. The technique of drawing blood will be shown, and students will tour the laboratories.

The music therapy department plans a slide show and discussion of careers in music therapy. Students interested in the nursing completion program will tour Loyola's Nursing Center. Faculty will demonstrate an example of health counseling.

Psychology faculty will present their curriculum, discuss careers in psychology and show the psychology labs. Students interested in social work will hear a talk by a Loyola alumnus working in the field, and will see a brief videotape.

LOYOLA NEW ORLEANS

Loyola General Studies majors also are invited to attend Health Careers Day. To register for Health Careers Day, or for more information, call Loyola's Admissions Office at (504) 865-3240, or write to Loyola University Admissions Office, 6363 St. Charles Ave., New Orleans, LA 70118.

DO YOU SLEEP WELL?

Dr. Wm L. POWELL

One of the first signs of impending poor health is poor sleep. Sleep is a necessary requirement of the body to replenish the strength and restore and repair the ravages of the day's activities of your body. If you are restless at night and get up feeling tired in the morning, this indicates that you did not acquire a refreshed sleep. Oh, there is no doubt that worries and frustrations of the day rob you of some sleep, but persistent poor sleep may have serious consequences. Sleeping tablets quiet the nerves temporarily - but do nothing constructive to correct the cause. Many of our patients thought they were sleeping well before adjustment. But since having Chiropractic care, they now realize what a GOOD NIGHT SLEEP really means as they awake fully refreshed, full of pep and energy to meet the day's events in good form.

USM department plans diving trip to Belize

The Department of Community Services, Travel and Women's Programming at the University of Southern Mississippi will sponsor a scuba diving trip to Belize, Central America Nov. 23-28.

The Caribbean's Great Barrier Reef will be explored by participants. The group will stay in the fishing village of San Pedro and will swim, snorkel and dive in water with visibility of up to 200 feet.

The cost of the trip includes all travel, meals, guides, hotels, boats, equipment, taxes and insurance.

For additional information contact Dr. Charles Burchell at Southern Station Box 5123, Hattiesburg, Ms 39406 or telephone (601) 266-5575

The 1982 Blue Angels Salute to America's veterans is scheduled at Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla. Nov. 13 and 14.

This year's show will include the Tora Wing of the Confederate Air Force performing aerial dogfights in vintage World War II aircraft. F4U Corsairs will be pitted against simulated "zeros." Pilots of the "Carol Jean" and the "Proud Mary," a pair of B-25 bombers, will reenact Doolittle's raid.

Bob Hoover, one of America's foremost pilots, will demonstrate precision flying in the twin-engine Rockwell International Shrike Commander.

The Eagles will perform stupendous formation aerobatic demonstrations that have won them raves around the world in addition to team and individual championship.

Betty Stewart, the current world class competition female aerobatic champion will thrill you with stunts that have won her copious honors as she has represented the United States around the globe.

The U.S. Marines will demonstrate a Jet Assisted Takeoff in "Fat Albert," the Blues transport aircraft.

And the Blue Angels will perform with the stunning precision and unparalleled professionalism that once again reinforces your pride in the U.S. Navy.

In addition to all of this, there will be aircraft modelers demonstrating the flight of their models and ultra light pilots doing their thing. Numerous displays in the hangar space from veterans organizations, various military commands, and aircraft corporations such as McDonnell Douglas, Grumman, and Raytheon will amaze and intrigue you.

A tie down area adjacent to the hangar will display aircraft ranging from early fighters, trainers, and patrol aircraft to some of the most highly developed in any of the Armed Services today.

Navy Showband South will perform for your enjoyment and good food and drink will be available to all.

So pack up your lawn chairs or picnic blanket, take State Road 173 through the back gate of Naval Air Station Pensacola for easiest access to the show site and make a point to be there for this proud salute to America's Veterans...You owe it to yourself.

Blue Angels Air Show. Aboard Naval Air Station Pensacola, Fla., November 13 and 14. Gates open at 10 a.m. Show starts at noon. Public welcome. Admission free.

For more information contact Ms. Kea Atwater at 452-2311.

Cooking up a storm

By Kate M. Guire Caire

A bisque...rich, smooth, creamier than creamy...is one of the most elegant and delectable of thick soups, usually made with seafoods or vegetables and cream, but I don't make them very often these days, though they're really not that much trouble.

However, the other day, confronted with less than a cup of leftover crabmeat, and just about the same of whipping cream, and a bit of this and that, I whipped together a crab bisque — and we enjoyed it so very much that I'm back on the "bisque kick" for a bit.

When you're making a bisque, the electric blender is excellent for the pureeing necessary for some recipes, though of course you can smash or mash with heavy spoon or such if you don't feel like washing out the blender afterwards. (I just fill the blender with water, turn it on and let it do the work itself.)

All sorts of things make a good basis for a bisque — mushrooms, bits of leftover chicken — use your imagination and the contents of your refrigerator. But, to get back to the beginning of this somewhat wandering essay, here's

CRAB BISQUE

6 to 8 ounces crabmeat (or 1 can crab, drained and flaked)
1/2 cup whipping cream
3 cups half-and-half
1 1/2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
1 1/2 Tbsp. flour
2 Tbsp. diced celery
2 Tbsp. sherry
Pepper to taste
Salt, paprika optional

Melt the butter in a heavy saucepan, blend in the flour, stirring till it bubbles up a bit, then add the half-and-half very gradually. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, till just slightly thickened.

Add the whipping cream, crab, celery, pepper and sherry. Heat thoroughly, continuing to stir. If desired, garnish with paprika. (Four servings).

Somewhat less rich to taste and budget is:

FRESH MUSHROOM BISQUE

1/2 cup sliced mushrooms
1/2 cup chopped mushrooms
1/2 tsp. minced onion
2 Tbsp. butter or margarine
2 Tbsp. flour
1 cup half-and-half, scalded
1/2 cup chicken broth, heated
1 1/2 cups milk, scalded and divided

Dash of pepper
Melt the butter, add the flour and pepper and stir well together over low heat for about two minutes. Combine the half-and-half, broth and 1 1/2 cups of the milk, then add this very gradually to the flour mixture, stirring constantly until smooth.

Cook over low to medium heat until thickened, remove from the fire and set aside. Saute the mushrooms and onion in two teaspoons of butter, then add the remaining quarter cup of milk, and heat to simmering. Stir into the first milk mixture and heat thoroughly. (4 servings).

Air Force reports openings

The Air Force has 5,800 openings during the next 12 months for men and women prior military service in certain skill areas.

According to SSgt. Bob Furry, Air Force recruiter in Gulfport, former Air Force members out less than four years may come back in with their previous rank.

Individuals with prior service in any branch of the Armed Forces may qualify if they possess the needed skills.

Selected enlistees will be assigned duties in the same career area in which they previously were qualified.

Retraining or cross-training into career fields will not be available.

Additionally, all prior service volunteers must meet normal Air Force enlistment standards.

Complete details are available from Sergeant Bob Furry, Air Force recruiter in Gulfport, or by calling (601) 864-8722.

VA HOSPITAL CONCERT—Sweaters have been assigned to Bay Senior High Chorus members in preparation for a concert tonight, at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Biloxi. Under the direction of Mrs. Peggy Jo Tedford, they will perform a variety of songs such as "Live-a-Humble" and "Hallelujah Day"—spirituals; "Horo Mhairidu, Turn Ye to Me"—old Scottish melody; "the Drunken Sailor"—a sea chanty, and "Country Style"—a country song. The choir will be judged Saturday at the Long Beach Festival on two sacred songs—"To God of Heaven and Earth" and "Jacob's Ladder." Chorus members include, rear from left, T.J. Farve, David Joseph, Tim Proulx, Chris Dorsey, Gene Griffin, Kevin James, Darren Perkins, Milas Harvey, Jay Albert, Herman Sones, Jerry Head, Scotty Rigby and Teresa Wilbourn; third row from left, Sheri Ashman, Susan Mamme, Terena Jackson,

Alcorn recruiters scheduled at Edgewater

Representatives from the office of admissions and recruiting at Alcorn State University are scheduled to appear Saturday from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. with Alcorn's mobile recruiting unit in the parking lot of the Edgewater Mall.

The Alcorn State University-Industry Cluster was responsible for the acquisition and renovation of the 29-foot Winnebago.

The mobile recruiting unit

Reading tutors

available

A 12-hour certified Laubach Literacy Workshop was sponsored by The Voluntary Action Center of Harrison County Inc. under the center's "Opportunity Read" program in cooperation with Annunciation Church of Kilm, St. Matthew The Apostle's Church in Necaise Crossing and Dominican Sisters of New York.

The workshop was conducted by Olivia Birulin from Operation Mainstream of New Orleans. Ms. Birulin is a certified tutor-trainer with the National Laubach Literacy Program.

The workshop was conducted at St. Matthew The Apostle Church whose members furnished facilities.

Refreshments were furnished by both churches including a donation.

Cathy McVay of Annunciation Church prepared the refreshments.

Sixteen received certificates as tutors and are prepared to accept students. The program will welcome applications through Sister Jean Harvey at 255-1894; the Bay St. Louis Library, 467-5282; and in Gulfport through Alice Dana at 896-6048 from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m.

Ms. Dana is director of Voluntary Action Center and coordinator for Opportunity Read.

"Our basic goal is to help adult and teenage non-readers to acquire basic literacy skills or to improve their reading," Dana said.

was designed to assist the university in strengthening its recruiting program. The unit is white with eye-catching purple stripes.

A special feature of the mobile recruiting unit is an awning for outside interaction with potential students, alumni and friends of the University.

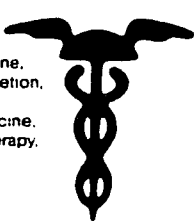

The Alcorn representatives will be available to answer questions and give detailed information on admission requirements, financial aid, scholarships, academic offerings and student life on the Alcorn campus. All local alumni and students are encouraged to visit with the Alcorn representatives. Refreshments will be served.

Alcorn State University is "a place for growing" and offers a strong academic program.

BEACH PARTY

The ghosts and the goblins along with Girl Scout Troop No. 122 celebrated Halloween with a party on the beach.

Troop Leaders Patti Schlosser and Pat Secrest hosted the party with games and refreshments.

Prizes were presented to Casey Hand for best costume and Jack-o-lanterns were won by Desiree Whitfield, Heather Casanova and Kelly Oliver.

The troop's sponsor, Crest Custom Builders, supplied wood and a bonfire for the troop to roast hotdogs and marshmallows.

This Girl Scout Junior Troop definitely had a great time and hopes that each and all had a safe and happy Halloween.

NOTICE REGARDING AVAILABILITY OF NEW MORTGAGE LOANS

PUBLIC NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN TO THE RESIDENTS OF Hancock County, Mississippi (hereinafter referred to as the "County"), that the Mississippi Housing Finance Corporation has agreed, subject to certain conditions, to purchase from Engel Mortgage Company, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as the "Lender") up to $289,800.00 of New Mortgage Loans originated by the Lender in Hancock County. The interest rate on such New Mortgage Loans will be 12.25% per annum.

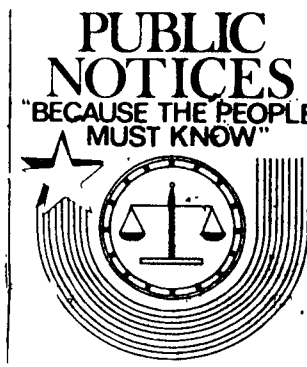

The Lender does not maintain an office in Hancock County. However, if any resident of Hancock County wishes to determine whether he or she qualifies for one of these new mortgage loans, or wishes to apply for one of these new mortgage loans, or wishes to obtain further information regarding the terms of these new mortgage loans, they should write to or visit the Lender's office at the following address:

Engel Mortgage Company, Inc., Suite 2-D Gateway Plaza, 4646 West Beach Boulevard, Biloxi, Mississippi 39531.

PLEASE NOTE: There are certain eligibility criteria that must be met in order to qualify for one of these new mortgage loans and not every resident of Hancock County will so qualify. Further information regarding eligibility can be obtained from the Lender. In addition, the $289,800.00 of New Mortgage Loans referenced above represents the Lender's allocation for Hancock County. On and after 60 days following September 16, 1982, this allocation can be reduced. Therefore, any interested resident who may qualify for one of these new mortgage loans should contact the Lender as soon as possible.

This notice is given by the Lender in accordance with the provisions of the Rules and Regulations of the Mississippi Housing Finance Corporation and Section 43-33-541, Mississippi Code 1972.

WIN A TRANS AM AND A SPORTS HOLIDAY!

Enter ESPN's exciting Watch and Win Sweepstakes of Champions. You could win a 1983 Pontiac Trans Am and a dream vacation of your choice to these top championship sporting events:

- The Super Bowl (If played)
- The Kentucky Derby
- The Indianapolis 500
- The U.S. Open Tennis Finals
- The World Series (First two games)

The Grand Prize winner gets a 1983 Pontiac Trans Am and an expense-paid trip for two, including round-trip air fare from winner's nearest major airport, accommodations and an expense allowance of $500. And this is just the Grand Prize!

In addition to the Grand Prize drawing, there are four different contests. Over 600 prizes in all. Winners of the four contests receive these additional prizes:

- 4 First Prizes of Pontiac Trans Ams
- 4 Second Prizes of Hitachi Color TVs
- 200 Third Prizes of Timex Quartz Chronograph Watches
- 400 Fourth Prizes of LeRoy Neiman Sports Posters

These prizes will be divided equally among the four contests. But you can't win if you don't watch ESPN and enter. Good Luck!

IMPORTANT! HERE'S HOW TO PLAY:

The Sweepstakes features four different contests, with a new contest every two weeks. You can enter one or all four contests. Each contest has a number (1, 2, 3, or 4), and two associated code words. The code words will be broadcast daily on ESPN from 7:00 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. EST, October 31 through December 25, 1982. All valid entries received by January 4, 1983, are eligible for bi-weekly contests, and are automatically entered in the Grand Prize drawing. To enter each contest, complete the official entry form or on a 3" x 5" piece of paper, print your name, address, zip code, the contest number, and two associated code words. Mail each entry separately to: ESPN Sweepstakes, P.O. Box 800, Lowell, IN 46356. No purchase or cable subscription required. Winners will be determined in random drawings by VENTURA ASSOCIATES, INC., an independent judging organization whose decisions are final. Sweepstakes open to residents of the U.S., 18 years of age and over. Limit: One entry per contest, per person. Employees and their families of ESPN, Getty, affiliated companies, their respective advertising and production agencies and VENTURA ASSOCIATES, INC. are not eligible. Void where prohibited by law. All Federal, state and local laws and regulations apply. Winners notified by mail. No substitution for prizes other than as offered or except as may be necessary due to availability. No duplicate prizes. Taxes are responsibility of winners. Winners' names and likeness may be used for publicity purposes. Entries property of ESPN. Odds determined by total entries received. For code words or a list of major prize winners, send your request with a stamped, self-addressed envelope to: ESPN Requests, P.O. Box 765, Lowell, IN 46356.
